

Kieron Clement-Smith

Senior Tax Manager

Tax

Kieron joined Edwin Coe in July 2018 as a Senior Tax Manager within the Tax department. He is a Chartered Tax Adviser and is ATT qualified.

Kieron provides complex tax compliance and tax advisory services to high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth individuals, entrepreneurs, professional partnerships, trustees and owner managed businesses.

Previously, he worked for a number of years in the Entrepreneur and Private Client Tax department at Grant Thornton, a boutique tax firm based in the West End and most recently as an Associate Director at Deloitte in the Private Client Tax department and the Tax Policy Group.

Kieron has substantial experience in providing bespoke offshore and onshore tax advice, advice on close company shareholdings, employee remuneration planning, capital taxes, tax residence, domicile matters, DOTAS regulations, accelerated payment notices (APNs) and the taxation of non-UK trusts.

Kieron has a particular interest in advising clients of the UK tax implications of acquiring, holding, disposing and restructuring of UK property interests, including considerations around the annual tax on enveloped dwellings (ATED), Stamp Duty Land Tax (SDLT) and the non-resident landlord (NRL) scheme.
