What our client's say

'After instructing Edwin Coe and in particular Dhruvi Thakrar & Jahanara Begum to assist myself and our company with a rather complicated, Licence to Sponsor, Certificate of Sponsorship and Visa Application for a valued employee of our company, I felt compelled to share our gratitude and satisfaction with both the service and professionalism of Dhruvi & Jahanara. I am not one to write a testimonial usually however from the initial frank and open advice that I was provided with, the ongoing assistance and willingness to answer my queries regardless of how tedious or repetitive in nature, the continued professionalism across an extended period of some months, the attention to detail and most importantly the excellent advice and knowledge provided throughout what was a difficult case, has left me compelled to do so. It goes without saying that our experience with Edwin Coe and in particular Dhruvi & Jahanara resulted in a successful Restricted Sponsorship for our employee and despite our initial thoughts that we may have been able to achieve the desired result without formal assistance, it became obvious early in the process that we would not have been successful without their personal guidance and extensive knowledge of all matters. I would therefore happily recommend without hesitation the services of Edwin Coe and specifically Dhruvi & Jahanara.'

Stephen Ruberry, Fiveseventen

'Dhruvi and her team assisted me following a refusal of an entrepreneur visa which I had filed myself. With the guidance of her team I managed to refile the application which was then successful even though my visa had expired'

HR Professional

'With the changing of the financial requirements that have to be met by UK Nationals if they want their non-EU nationals spouses to join them, I thought that I would not be able to marry and remain in the UK without having to return to Russia. My husband and I had just completed our studies and did not have the requisite funds. However Ms Thakrar and her team found a strategic solution which enabled me to succeed in my application as swiftly as was possible in the circumstances of my case.'

Anna Zherkova

'Ms Thakrar and her team assisted me in the preparation of an Investor visa and arranged a super-premium appointment for me such that my visa was prepared and granted within a week.'
