

Immigration

Edwin Coe offer specialist business and personal immigration services for both businesses and HNW/UHNW.

UK immigration law

The UK immigration rules are a complex and ever-changing area of law with new rules and regulations regularly introduced by the UK government. This has become more apparent with the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic and the introduction of the UK's new Points-Based Immigration system from 2021, following Brexit. Our team recognise the need for timely solutions which are current and in line with the forever legislative changes.

We are a team of highly skilled immigration advisers with extensive immigration knowledge that enables us to deliver practical and positive solutions to our clients. We are focussed on providing bespoke immigration solutions in line with the Immigration Rules and ensuring businesses are fully compliant with the stringent policies in place when sponsoring both EU and non-EU nationals that require permission to work in the UK.

Edwin Coe work with a vast network of industry leaders and therefore understand the commercial and legal aspects applicable to solving immigration issues for our clients.

We are committed to working to the highest ethical standards and offering value for money as well as high quality services.

Our team is able to assist with many aspects of Immigration law and the particular nuances within Business Immigration law.
