

Private Client

Our leading private client team assists private individuals and families for whom wealth preservation is a fundamental objective.

We act as trusted advisers to individuals, families, trusts and family or owner-run businesses both in the United Kingdom and internationally. We offer continuity and foster close long-term relationships with clients in order to provide sound advice on the various situations that can arise in life, both legal and fiscal, in personal as well as business situations. Confidential and discreet handling of such matters is an essential part of what we offer.

Our areas of expertise include the following:

- Estate planning (Wills and Lasting Powers of Attorney)
- Wealth preservation
- Tax planning
- Inter-generational succession issues
- Probate of estates, incl. cross-border estates
- Intestacy
- Philanthropic planning
- Elderly and vulnerable clients
- Family settlements
- Family governance structures
- Lifetime tax planning
- Establishing onshore and offshore trusts
- Trust management.

Trusts and Tax

We specialise in trust and tax advice and work closely with our clients' wealth management professionals, trust companies and trustees in order to assist clients in the UK and based all over the world. Our client base is increasingly international and we regularly advise on cross-border issues relating to trusts and estates, ensuring multi-jurisdictional advice is co-ordinated seamlessly.

We work particularly closely with Edwin Coe's in-house team of specialist Chartered Tax Advisers to provide a seamless specialist service covering all areas of personal and private wealth taxation.

This collaboration provides a unique combination of multi-disciplinary perspectives covering the full range of legal and tax advice needed by private clients.

Wills and Estate Planning

We pride ourselves on providing bespoke guidance and practical advice on the most tax-efficient and flexible wills to meet clients' estate planning aims. We are experts in dealing with complex will planning involving international issues and we also advise on Lasting Powers of Attorney which allow attorneys to act on behalf of clients should they lose mental capacity in the future.

Philanthropy

We specialise in advising charitable donors, often in a cross-border context, in establishing and registering family charitable foundations and facilitating cross-border charitable gifts tax efficiently.

Pensions and Tax Planning

The way in which pension benefits can be used has changed very dramatically since 5 April 2015. Although the tax treatment varies depending on whether a person dies before the age of 75 or afterwards, the benefits which can accrue to heirs is significant. The way in which pension benefits should be used will depend on personal circumstances and Edwin Coe is well placed to advise in this area, in conjunction with our clients' financial advisers.

Probate and Intestacy

Our range of Private Client expertise includes acting as or representing the executors or administrators in the UK or often complex and multi-jurisdictional estates, and advising on which countries' succession rules apply to the estate, particularly where forced heirship rules are relevant. We have extensive experience in applying for the resealing of foreign Grants of Probate, applying for limited grants and handling intestacy cases. We provide a seamless service when administering estates whilst complying with all the relevant tax and legal requirements and above all, aim to provide the bereaved family/friends with a sensitive, client-focused service.

Court of Protection

We also act for clients who have lost the capacity to deal with their own financial or personal affairs including obtaining Court of Protection Deputyship Orders where necessary. These allow a next of kin or close professional contact to take responsibility for the clients' affairs.

'The team undertakes difficult and sensitive work for the full range of private clients with quiet competence and dedication. They are especially good at the client-care side of the job. More than once I have seen clients with real difficulties – both technical legal difficulties and emotional/family ones – rely heavily on the firm's compassionate approach.'

The Legal 500 UK 2023

‘It is rare to have such a large full service private client department that is so approachable and down to earth. They know their stuff and seem to be able to communicate complicated concepts in a way that clients can easily understand.’

The Legal 500 UK 2022

‘They are all consistently good at explaining things to the lay client and to other professionals in a clear, concise and accessible way. They help simplify things well. They are carving out a very good niche for themselves.’
