

Lara Persell

Solicitor

Private Client

Lara joined Edwin Coe in September 2020 as a paralegal and qualified as a Solicitor within the Private Client team in September 2022. She previously completed seats as a trainee solicitor within the Restructuring & Insolvency, Private Client and Intellectual Property teams.

Lara studied English Literature at Loughborough University before completing the GDL and LPC at BPP Law School.

Lara advises a range of individuals and families on both UK and international succession and tax planning, including the preparation of Wills and bespoke letters of wishes, Lasting Powers of Attorney and the creation of trusts, as well as assisting clients with probate and estate administration. Lara also advises UK charities and trustees by dealing with the Charity Commission and other regulators.

Expertise

- Private Client

Contact

Telephone: +44 (0)20 7691 4148
Email: lara.persell@edwincoe.com